(c) whether Government has intervened at every step to create corporate monopolies in food system from seed to domestic production and trade including the food processing to liberalize import and export oriented agriculture to corporate retail; and

(d) if so, the concrete measures and steps Government has taken to check food crisis in the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (DR. AKHILESH PRASAD SINGH): (a) No, Sir. The country is not witnessing any food crisis. Adequate stocks of foodgrains are available in the country.

(b) On account of effective foodgrains supply management coupled with a slew of price control measures, the country experienced a very moderate price rise in comparison to the international prices over at least last one and a half years.

(c) and (d) No, Sir. The Government promotes over all policy of inclusive and equitable economic growth necessary for sustainable development to knit and integrate economically and socially challenged sections of society into mainstream and draw them into a cycle of growth, development and empowerment, eventually broadening and deepening the spectrum of growth. Therefore, Government has taken various short-term fiscal, administrative and monetary measures, besides medium-term strategy initiatives to ensure adequate availability of food stocks in the country at affordable prices, addressing interests of all the stakeholders.
